

Ten-Frame Addition Race

Each player needs a ten frame and 10 counters. Put up a divider between the players so they can't see what the other is doing.

Each player places any number of counters, 0-10, onto his or her ten frame. When they both have their number ready, they remove the divider. They race to be the first to say the correct sum.

